MARCH 2011

SPRING DEPUTATION TOUR:

We have Rev. Gerson Cardoso from the Brazil Amazon Area as our speaker. Rev. Cardoso is the sub Field Director for the Amazon area. He is also the Pastor of a Church that when he started out as the pastor, the Church was running about ten people. Today it is running about twelve hundred people. Rev. Cardoso speaks and reads English, but he does not consider himself fluent. To assist in translation with the Portuguese language, Pastor Will Haworth from our Sherman Church will be traveling with him. Pastor Haworth and his wife, Cathy, are former Missionaries to Brazil. You do not want to miss hearing what Rev. Cardoso has to tell us about the exciting work going on in Brazil and the Amazon area!

EASTER OFFERING

Why We Sustain the World Evangelism Fund

The World Evangelism Fund (WEF) is the essential foundation for all giving in Global Mission. In churches around the world, pastors, church boards, and NMI leaders network prayerfully and strategically to fulfill WEF giving goals.

Missional pastors model, "When our church gives WEF in full, we have the privilege to invest in Global Mission strategy and goals. Then beyond WEF, our church can designate additional giving to many mission needs and specific passions." Pastors are searching for ways to invest more in Global Mission, not less. They know WEF works.

Each church motivated to provide financial and human resources beyond WEF should complete WEF giving as a prerequisite. Without WEF, no other ministry provided by designated or Approved Mission Special giving will remain viable (including Alabaster, LINKS, Nazarene Compassionate Ministries, JESUS Film Harvest Partners, Work & Witness, partnerships, etc.).

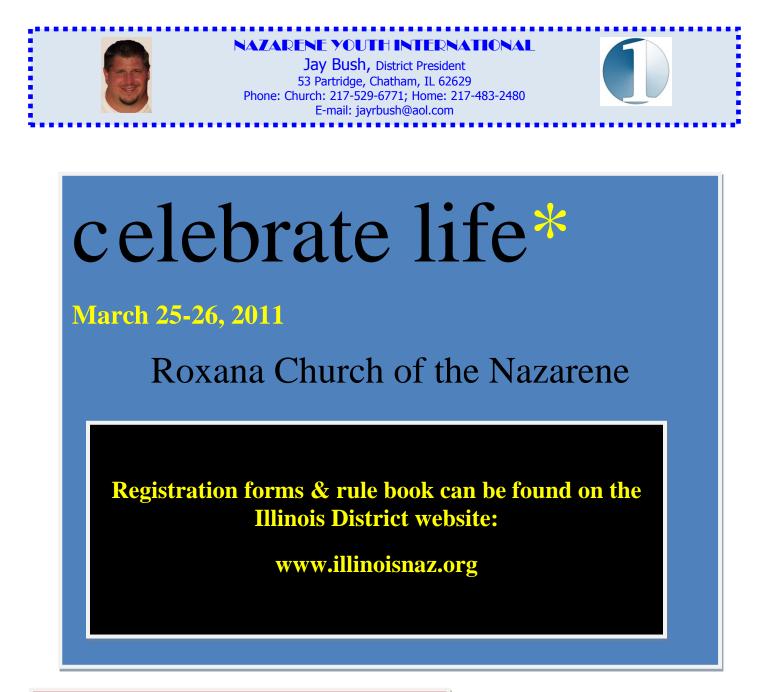

WEF provides baseline infrastructure: leadership for 7 regions, 36 fields, and 426 districts and national ministries. For missionary families, WEF provides equipping, salary, housing, utilities, medical insurance, moving costs, and travel to and from the field. The World Evangelism Fund was created to allow all missionaries to work effectively and to encourage all churches to support outreach efficiently.

No other church supports global mission more effectively than the Church of the Nazarene. No other funding plan invests more productively in life transformation than WEF giving. It is the most helpful way to invest in the Great Commission and Book-of-Acts holiness mission movements. WEF is a key in global strategy to evangelize and disciple people with the love of Christ and the Gospel.

Only with WEF can we evangelize and disciple millions of people each year, equip thousands of leaders each year, and organize hundreds of churches each year. We cannot accomplish these purposes without WEF. Global WEF giving multiplies through collective sacrifice, international generosity, and accountable distribution.

The global mission of the Church of the Nazarene is a massive venture. To accomplish the Great Commission—spreading Christ, the Gospel, and holiness around the world—requires money.

Retters Receive DSA

The Glenview Church of the Nazarene of Glen Carbon honored Rev. Edwin L. and Patricia A. Retter with a DSA. The Retters were in the Pastoral ministry for 50 years. This is their first DSA and we were happy to recognize their achievements. The Special Day was Sunday July 18, 2010. Letters were read from many friends and co-workers and many were in attendance. Their grandchildren each had some special remembrances for Grandpa and Grandma. Ed and Pat are members of the Glenview Church and both are very active in the Lord's work. They are a wonderful blessing to us.

Pastor Rick Unger

Mrs. Irene Lillian Spruce went to be with the Lord on February 17, 2011. Irene's family includes her son, District Superintendent Jim Spruce (Karen); daughter, Sara: granddaughters, Cynthia and Sharolyn; grandson, Steven; and six greatgrandchildren.

Irene Lillian Spruce was a dynamic woman who was loving and deeply devoted wife to her husband, a nurturing mother to her children, and a joyful servant of the community, but it was her unwavering commitment as a child of God for which she will be remembered most. She was gracious and kind with a heart that beat to serve the Lord. Irene's life was not without trial, but she taught us how to trust that the Lord will provide in whatever way He sees fit. She lived her life as a constant reflection of her favorite verse in Deuteronomy which states: "The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged." In everything she did, Irene was a true blessing to those around her.

In "faith-based" missions, missionaries spend valuable time to raise financial support. They conduct services, receive pledges of support, and then pray the amount raised will cover living expenses. Sometimes when the money runs out, missionaries are forced to return home.

WEF invests directly to accomplish the mission of the Church of the Nazarene: to make Christlike disciples in the nations.

How WEF WorksFull-time missionaries (excluding volunteers) in the Church of the Nazarene receive monthly compensation based on a modest standard amount plus a cost-of-living adjustment according to the world area in which they serve.

The World Evangelism Fund comes from the generosity of Nazarenes around the world. We challenge each church globally to contribute 5.5 percent of its current income. Many churches see the effectiveness of global mission and give well beyond that minimum.

To make Christlike disciples in the nations, WEF provides ministries of all nations and age groups in Global Mission, including the USA/Canada Region, NMI, Nazarene Youth International, Sunday School and Discipleship Ministry International, clergy development, education, and administration.

A major portion of administrative and support costs is for infrastructure essential to global ministries. Costs to deliver ministries such as global technology, global communication, and global travel increase annually.

Benefits of WEFMissionaries receive regular compensation, enabling them to concentrate on their calling and to help raise awareness for the entire mission. While missionaries correspond and offer home assignment/deputation services to inform people of their field of service, these activities do not demand a large portion of their time on the mission field.

Passion for giving is inspired by global mission, evangelism, and disciple-making. We raise WEF on the backs of missionaries, international leaders, and mission movements.

Each church, regardless of size, has an opportunity to participate in global mission. Just as individuals are blessed by God when they commit their resources for His kingdom, so churches are blessed when they give to help reach lost people around the world.

Jesus of Nazareth

"Jesus of Nazareth" was often used by others as a title for Jesus. I had never given it much thought really. But it has to mean that Jesus not only got into Nazareth, but that some of Nazareth got into him. Who knows what it was, maybe it was his accent or dialect, the foods he preferred, or his calloused hands. But others recognized him as "one of them."

I understand the necessity of the Incarnation in our Atonement and Reconciliation to God. Christ, "who was equal to God," became "one of us," taking on the fullness of humanity in order to save us. But I've usually limited this view to the "highlights" of Jesus' life: the miracle that happened in Mary's womb, the angel's celebration at Bethlehem, the heavenly announcement at the Jordan, and the culmination of the Cross. Lately, I'm seeing a new thing -- that the incarnation is also about the 20+ years Jesus spent in the little hicktown called Nazareth: laboring in a carpenter's shop, honoring his parents, and loving his neighbors. He "pitched his tent" among them and "moved into the neighborhood." (John 1:14, The Message) And this was not a "good neighborhood" either – Nazareth, from which "nothing good" was expected to originate.

What would it mean for disciples of Jesus (and especially "The People Called Nazarenes") to recapture this aspect of our calling? We are called both to be Missional and Incarnational (Christlike). Being Missional means being "sent." While being Incarnational means fully embracing the people and places to whom we are sent. We are sent to "make disciples of all nations" but, like Jesus, we are also called to embody his love, his presence, and blessing in specific places, and among certain people.

We cannot do so from a distance -- geographically to be sure, but culturally as well. To be in the world, is as important to Jesus as not being of the world. As followers of Jesus we are called to "be holy as he was holy." But holiness that cannot befriend sinners is not the Christlike kind. The truth is, his kind of holiness is costly. It takes years, not weeks or months, to become part of a family, a community, or a culture. This is so important, and is a hard lesson for church planters, pastors, and disciples to learn.

Of course, such an approach also carries the risk that we might be accused of becoming "worldly" in our quest. (Jesus was called "a friend of sinners, a drunkard, and a glutton.) But failure to take this risk assures that we will only be known by our communities as a kind of religious tourist "just passing through", or worse, travelling salesmen "only here to peddle our wares".

So, what does Jesus look like, live like, and love like in your town, your neighborhood, and your workplace? What would it mean for you to not only be known as "one of His", but also as "one of them"? "Just as the Father has sent me," Jesus said, "so I am sending you." (John 20:21)
