

Registration for "Church Planting Essentials", "Churches Planting Churches" and certified trainers seminars:

This event is held March 18 – 22 at Sherman.

Please connect and register via the district website. The following link gives an overview of what God is doing in other districts where the seminar has been held:

<http://medialibrary.nazarene.org/files/84370-usacanada-church-planting-training.mp4> Your registration needs to be done in order to guarantee space, meal planning at Sherman, etc. Remember that your lodging is provided (see website) as well as your registration fee.

Your church may not be ready at present to be a part of a plant, but you as the lead pastor need to be informed about the opportunities that lay ahead as the seminar so well explains. Check out the above link.

Did You Miss Team Day North?

It was last Saturday, February 16, at Decatur First. Perhaps you had bi-vocational employment, an emergency or a funeral or you have already planned to attend Team Day South. A lot of people have the flu. Team Day is designed for all pastors, and as many laypersons as possible.

You are an important part of the district community of leaders. All of us need the new learning and opportunities for personal growth offered by Team Day.

Team Day South is at Salem on March 9 with registration starting at 8:30 a.m. Mark Bane, pastor of Gracepointe Church of the Nazarene in Atlanta, is worth the time and effort. His churches have planted several churches over the years. Please join us at Team Day South!

- March 2 – Credentials & Studies, 8am, Mattoon E.S.
- March 9 – TEAM Day South, MIT classes, Salem, 9am; Mark Bane, speaker
