B. INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

Eligibility

The board serves only the persons who are properly enrolled. Enrollment is open only to local preachers, deacons-Christian education, deacons-compassionate ministries, deacons-music ministries, and prospective ministers of music who qualify according to the Manual, 410.

Courses

There are seven general courses administered by the Ministerial Studies Board; elders, deacon of administration, deacon of compassionate ministries, deacon of Christian education, deacon of music, deacon of youth, and lay minister (Handbook of Ministerial Studies).

Ministers, deacons and deaconesses will not be ordained without having completed their respective courses. An exception to this is provided for all commissioned song evangelists who held this status immediately prior to the 1986 assembly season. Those becoming commissioned song evangelists will complete the deacon track in music ministries. Those interested in commissioned or registered song evangelists' credentials should study carefully all requirements as listed in Handbook on Ministerial Studies, 446, "The Song Evangelist."

Modes of Study

The options for the course of study are listed below (by preference) as recommended and approved by the Illinois District Ministerial Studies Board.

1. A Nazarene university pursuing a degree in a religious major approved/ validated by Nazarene Clergy Services.

2. Nazarene Theological Seminary.
3. Nazarene Bible College: Pursuing a degree in a religious major approved/validated by Nazarene Clergy Services.
4. Northwest Nazarene University: Online COS – Course of Study Module
5. Nazarene Bible College: NBC Track, MPP Track.
6. A Nazarene District School of Ministry: Module Course
7. A Nazarene university or an accredited university, pursuing a degree in a religious field of study (Subject to evaluation).

The Course of Study is under the immediate supervision of the District Board of Ministerial Studies. Students are advised to pursue preparation or ordination by selecting one of the above-mentioned modes of study. Each student is assigned an advisor to work with in establishing a plan of study.

The courses required of college students are in the Manual, 424.3. The competency statements for ministerial education are listed in Manual, 424.3. All college and university programs must meet these competency statements for course of study.

C. REGULATIONS FOR MINISTERIAL COURSE OF STUDY

1. It is no longer necessary for students to purchase the Sourcebook for Ministerial Development. This information and more can now be found on the Clergy Education website (<http://nazarenepastor.org/clergyeducation/>) A Candidate Handbook can be downloaded for free from <http://www.nazarenepastor.org/ClergyEducation/LinkClick.aspx?link=Resources%2fUSAHB.pdf&tabid=74&mid=501>.
2. Each student is encouraged to take four courses each year. The general church requires 2 courses per year to be passed to allow a student to continue. After the district license is granted to the student, ten years is allowed to complete the 24 required courses, Manual 427.4. At 2 per year, the student will not succeed. Thus, the Illinois District has chosen to encourage students to complete 4 courses per year. All course work must be completed by the end of the assembly year (April) in order for the student to receive credit for that assembly year. The only exception is for those students enrolled in an institution of higher learning in which the class may not conclude until the board meets in May.
3. A student is placed in a study level based on the number of courses completed regardless of the level of the courses. The only exception is that the course on the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene must be completed before level one is considered complete (unless the student is enrolled in a religion program at a Nazarene institution) and before the student is eligible for a district license.
4. The secretary may not enroll anyone except by written letter from the applicant to include the following information: name (first, middle and last); address; telephone number; e-mail address; course of study desired; church where current membership is held; letter of recommendation from the church pastor where membership is held; copy of local license granted by that church; and official transcripts from colleges or other schools beyond high school. It will be the obligation of the student to see that all the information is sent to the secretary. An application form will be made available for anyone expressing interest in enrolling with the Board of Ministerial Studies.
5. Prior to being issued a graduation certificate, all students must be reviewed by the Ministerial Studies Board. The only exceptions are Nazarene Bible College graduates of the Bible Studies Course who are immediately issued a graduation certificate.
6. No student will be graduated from the course of study without completing an internship program.

7. When a student moves to another district, the secretary of the Ministerial Board should transfer the student's records to the new district by contacting the secretary of that district's Board of Ministerial Studies. Students are strongly advised to keep copies of course record sheets and final grades. The District is not responsible for loss of data when transferring to another district.

8. Candidates should be prepared to appear annually before the Board of Ministerial Studies. These meetings will be scheduled by the district office and notification of the meetings will be sent to you.

9. Files for inactive students will be maintained by the Board of Ministerial Studies for no longer than 10 years.

10. Students are required to keep an active e-mail account while enrolled in the course of study.

College Students

College students are responsible to submit to the board documentary evidence of academic standing in harmony with Manual, 427.1, 427.4.

College students are reminded to plan their curriculum in harmony with Manual, 424.1 and 424.3. Yearly updates should be submitted to the secretary of the Board of Ministerial Studies. The Board of Ministerial Studies will evaluate the final transcript at graduation, and no requirements stated in the Manual will be waived.

D. CONTINUING EDUCATION

"Once a minister has fulfilled the expectations of the educational foundations for ministry, he or she will continue a pattern of lifelong learning to enhance the ministry of which God has called him or her. A minimum expectation is 20 contact hours each year (2 accredited continuing education units (CEU's) (Manual 424.6).

In order to facilitate the fulfillment of this requirement, a number of qualified events will be promoted through the district and by other means. An individual may receive CEU's by participating in a qualified event sponsored by the district, the general church, one of our colleges or universities or other approved method. When CEU's are available for a sponsored event, notification of the same will be made at the event and the participants will have the opportunity to sign up for credits. Credits will be based upon the participant attending the entire event and fulfilling other requirements (if applicable) for the event (such as extra reading or writing when appropriate). In all cases, it is the individual participant's responsibility to qualify him/herself for CEU credits.

The Board of Ministerial Studies appoints a continuing education director who shall be responsible to facilitate CEU qualified events and to resource individuals in obtaining CEU credits for events attended. Individuals may also contact the Department of Clergy Development directly with questions or for qualifying and awarding CEU credits for courses taken. All determination of CEU qualifications shall be made by the Office of Ministry. All records of CEU's obtained shall be retained by the Department of Clergy Development and by the individual himself/herself. Courses taken for degree programs are not eligible for CEU credit.

Illinois District Superintendent's Report – 2013
"Questions at the Crossroads"

George Harper and I were up at 12:30 a.m., dressed for the bitter cold and stepped outside the hut at Camp Muir. We wore headlamps and carried only extra wool clothes, ample water and protein bars. Roped to one another, we crossed Mt. Rainier's Ingram Glacier at 11,000 ft. Our route followed the base of the Cathedral Rocks, which led to the Nisqually Glacier and to the 14,410 ft. summit of Rainier. Yet we faced Disappointment Cleaver which was surrounded by a series of crevasses – large cracks in glaciers up to blocks long and deep enough to make rescue impossible. A glacier is like a mousetrap: any place you step too near a crevasse may be a snow-bridge, solid footing in mere disguise, unable to support your weight. Ice towers the size of boxcars shift with time and gravity. What was familiar the summer before is now foreign.

Just 1,200 vertical feet above us, twice the height of the St. Louis Arch and six hours uphill, was the shadowy outline of Rainier's rounded summit. There are always critical questions at crossroads, and on a mountain, as in life, wrong route equals wrong destination. But we had lost our way, and too much time and so turned back. Churches and districts live at crossroads where we can easily get off track and lose time. But tonight we will hear the inspiring testimony of how God spoke at critical crossroads in the life of a little boy who grew to be a very old man.

A year ago today we paid tribute to our district's oldest native son, Rev. George H.D. Reader. To put his age in perspective, Rev. Reader is older than John Bowling and any two Olivetians all combined. And in a scant 13 years he will be the same age as Moses when he died.

Rev. Reader, an Olivet grad, is the oldest Nazarene preacher in the world. The following video clip reveals questions from God at critical times in his life. They are also apropos for us tonight as we navigate in uncertain times and territory.

<http://www.graceandpeacemagazine.org/videos/mediaitem/238-a-charge-to-keep>.

Question #1 – "Will You Glorify Me?"

It was asked outright, straight from the Holy Spirit to the five year old heart of George Reader. Charles Wesley wrote, "A charge to keep I have, a God to glorify." "Will you glorify me?" was embedded in the question, "Can I have you?" It was God's Question #1 for Rev. Reader.

I once asked my Eastern Michigan DS what the district game-plan was for starting new churches. He said, "You and Flint Central are the game-plan. The district can help, but unless pastors have a vision new starts will not happen." I told our board, "Fenton has no holiness voice and seven of our families live there. Why should we keep them and their income here when we could release them to a new work in Fenton?" The board was silent except for a man who said, "You do that and you will lose significant income." I asked the board to pray hard about a vision that we did not have or share at the time. But in time, God worked in the hearts of good people who did not see eye to eye.

Today Fenton is a faithful Church of the Nazarene. Not every church can plant like that but every church can ask the Lord of the harvest how they may help. The church of 650 that I left runs about 1,700 today. We shared a belief that it would not kill us to give up a me?" Or, "Will you learn from me, follow me and take instruction from me?" It is an accountability question, politely confrontational, yet potentially life or ministry saving. Wesley wrote, "Arm me with jealous care as in thy sight to live; and O thy servant, Lord, prepare a strict account to give."

Dr. Jerry Porter said while at Cali, "People back home will be eager to learn about prayer. But if you want to implement accountability as it is practiced here in Cali you will likely lose your audience. The U.S. culture is independent and not as desperate for help as those who live here."

Immediately I reflected on my training from George and thought that it would be a telling and tragic irony if Christians are less eager to be discipled and have disciples than climbers are to be taught how to avoid a crevasse. Jesus commissioned us to make disciples – which is more than getting people saved.

At a youth rally in a soccer stadium full of 26,000 people, some 2,000 new converts stood to acknowledge Christ at the end of a sermon. Within seconds a teen prayed with each convert and gathered vital contact information, and assigned them to a cell group leader from their neighborhood. Within twenty-four hours the new converts were called by phone. Within forty-eight hours someone from the church was at their door. The next Sunday they were expected to be in church and meet for follow-up.

In a classroom I saw new converts my age being prayed for by young teens. Where do you find that many teenagers to make the initial contact in a stadium or a class on Sunday? It is simple – thousands of teens are in accountability groups led by older teens or adults who mentor them.

Everybody has a disciple, and everybody is a disciple. Jesus looked at Simon Peter with all his immaturity and said, "Stick with me. I intend to build my church on people just like you. You don't have to be perfect to follow me; a lot of imperfect people follow me. I will perfect your motive at Pentecost; perfection of practice will come as you mature. You only need to be humble, teachable and in connectional relationship with me."

The door between our kitchen and the back porch was nearly always open in my childhood. It was warm most of the year around. The screen door to the back porch was never locked. So we ate our meals together by whatever people in parsonages put on back porches – mops and brooms, Toro ant killer, bottles of Mange medicine for dogs, canned dog food and wooden folding chairs from the church. "Well what are you folk having for supper tonight?" came a voice through the screen door. We knew the voice quite well because Mrs. Tanner and Mrs. Anderson, widowed sisters in their 80s, managed to connect with us right during suppertime. They were next door neighbors and people who knew you like family came to the back door.

So the sisters would invite themselves in, pull up a wooden folding chair and settle in for conversation and perhaps a chicken leg. Mother was a woman of order and schedule and such mealtime interruptions used to irritate her considerably, but as a child I liked these grandmotherly busybodies. So how did I shift from appreciating the beauty of spontaneity and relationship to that of settling for the convenience of closed doors? This is a back-door caution for the church as a kingdom movement.

We have done well with our core values of Christian, holiness and missional. But we have fallen down badly in our connectional relationships with one another. We are in danger of not wanting to remember who the "one another" among us is. But the truth is that we cannot be a global church and a gated church simultaneously. There is a scary convenience to the isolation of being in my car, then my closed garage, then my locked house, then my fenced in yard. In my world today Mrs. Tanner no longer drops in. Nobody does.

But I have back yard neighbor, Mark. Mark cut down eight trees on his property whose limbs dropped branches on both our yards. Two weeks ago on a Sunday afternoon he was lifting heavy logs onto a trailer by himself. I volunteered to help. Halfway through an hour of work he said, "Today I am desperate but I normally wouldn't take help for a job like this from a man your age. How many years have you been retired?" My answer led to a question he had about my job. And then he said, "I thought preachers didn't work on Sundays. "Well," I said, "Quite a lot of people would agree with you." Was loading logs on a hot Sunday an intrusion? Sure. Was Mark my neighbor? Of course. Have I been a good neighbor to Mark? No.

We've been on the same block for three years and loading logs is all I've ever done with him. "Neighbor" often equates with "intrusion" in our culture. A connectional relationship means we cannot live as islands and keep our neighbors at a distance.

In Texarkana, the sisters would not go away. They were neighbors, perhaps a little too close for comfort, but next door nonetheless. But when Mrs. Tanner's husband had a stroke mom was the first one there with food. When vagrants came to our front door wanting food mom made a sandwich and a jar of tea. Is our system of budget support a little too close for comfort, even slightly inconvenient? Have you ever wished that the payment of budgets, like an uninvited neighbor, would just go away or quit coming around so often?

Or, do you feel a deep, visceral connection in our relationships to retired ministers, Olivet Nazarene University, world missions and district interests? Are we user-friendly with these neighbors who live up the road and across the ocean? And what will our response be to David Samayoa and Hispanics as neighbors? If we are connected at all to any of these neighbors we are connected at the heart. The rich young ruler was not connected, was he? The Good Samaritan was, wasn't he?

Question #3 – "Will You Rely Totally On Me?"

Early in his ministry Rev. Reader rose at 2:00 a.m. to pray an hour a day (or night). He prayed regularly for decades for preachers and general superintendents. You heard him pray, "Save us from deadness and inactivity. Help us to have the fire burn within us." Wesley wrote, "Help me to watch and pray, and on thyself rely, assured, if I my trust betray, I shall forever die."

Thirty years ago God called an alcoholic to the ministry who got saved and quit drinking so he could answer the call to preach. He moved to Cali, got a job and started a storefront church. Prayer and accountability had saved his life so he thought it would save his church. It nearly killed the church for a few years but the rest is history. Today the former alcoholic pastor has six Sunday services and about 14,000 in attendance at the International House of Prayer Church of the Nazarene in Cali. At 4:00 a.m. we attended a two hour prayer meeting. 250 or so teens and adults were present. Some knelt with their faces on the floor, most walked. What motivates people to get up at 3:00 a.m. and meet God for two hours before the school or work day begins?

Question #4 – "Will You Serve Me?"

This meant to feed his sheep. God asked Bro. Reader, "Will you accept my call to preach the Word?" He said yes at fourteen. Wesley wrote, "To serve the present age, my calling to fulfill; oh, may it all my powers engage to do my Master's will." The call to service always has a steep learning-curve.

During the CPC seminar Kevin Hancock expressed a burden for a work in State Park near his church where there is a high concentration of young Hispanic families. David Samayoa, having planted three churches on the Kentucky District, was in attendance. If 80 churches gave $250 in one year it would equal $20,000. With matching district support we would have $40,000. In response to our letter so far as only God could make possible, we had $31,800 from only twenty-two local church commitments a week before assembly.

I told the pastors, "Everybody can do something; everybody can care. No church is too small to participate; no gift is too small to make a difference." I'd like to see us reach $40,000 as a minimum, but I am far more interested in 100% participation. Are you in? Everybody can do something; everybody can care. So David will start in State Park and eventually make his way to our district and especially where the concentration of Hispanics is high and we have no Hispanic works such as Springfield, Decatur and Champaign-Urbana.

Jesus said the Gospel is to go to all the nations and even the uttermost part of the earth. State Park is not your town but it is on your state map. I've asked our pastors to come prepared to make the pledge their board has approved. You don't need to break the bank but please allow Jesus to break your heart.

I want to introduce David Samayoa. His vision will conclude my report. Following David, Bill Shotts will call the ushers forward to distribute pledge flyers. Your participation reflects the vision you have beyond the walls of your church. Everybody can care. No gift is too small to make a difference. Local church vision is what WE can see. Kingdom vision is what GOD can see. Can we see the Kingdom through the eyes of Jesus? Please welcome Rev. David Samayoa to his new home – your heart.

Jim Spruce,
Illinois District Superintendent

Post-script: The pastors attending District Assembly pledged just over $49,000 in one service.

2. Mission Strategy Director

District Mission Strategy Director Report to the District Assembly 2012-2013

Members and friends of the assembly, it is my privilege to present to you my sixth report as District Mission Strategy Director. I want to begin by expressing my gratitude to our District leadership: Thank you Dr. Spruce and Doug Haynes for your faithfulness, partnership, and friendship. The Mission Strategy Team this year included the following members: Philip Alvord, Kevin Donoho, Allen Ebbler, Les Wilhelm; Rita Briggs, Wayne Clevenger, Craig Dillman, Tim Mondy; James Craig; Will Haworth; and Tim Young, Jr.. These have become a team of visionaries, who are helping us see a new day on our District. I also want to acknowledge our church planters and new works that are active on our District: Wayne Clevenger at Urbana Lighthouse; Tim Young, Jr. at Granite City (Church Type Mission); Willard Anderson at The Master's Hands (Compassionate Ministries Center) in Olney, and Rita Briggs and her efforts toward a new church in Jacksonville. Last summer's Prayer Summit in Springfield got our year off to a great start. God moved many people -- our leaders, and churches to recommit themselves to prayer, and no doubt God is hearing and answering those prayers. This has led us into a most fruitful year, full of new possibilities. We are already anticipating the Prayer Summit in August.

We again enjoyed successful Team Days this year in both Decatur and Salem. Pastor Mark Bane challenged us with his preaching and teaching to allow Christ to TRANSFORM both us and our churches for the work of his mission. ONU professors, Dr. Frank Moore, and Dr. Mark Quanstrom, taught popular workshops, along with many of you here today who offered your expertise as well. Special thanks go to Lara Mondy and her volunteers who planned and worked hard to organize these important events.

The Mission Strategy Team distributed over $16,500 in grants this year. These were used to provide new chairs for our growing Urbana congregation, to provide coaching for Tim Young, Jr. our organic church planter in Granite City, and to provide refrigeration units for The Master's Hands Compassionate Ministries Center in Olney.

Willard Anderson's work at The Master's Hands continues to amaze us with God's faithfulness in caring for those with needs in the Olney area. Over 700 people are being ministered to monthly there. And this year, The Master's Hands multiplied their influence by helping to launch a new Compassionate Ministries Center in Newton. Willard also has a vision for a food ministry outreach in Effingham, and we are praying with him for that vision. Along with the ongoing work of the Good Samaritan Center in Washington Park, and the Hopeful Heart ministries of Decatur, not to mention the many compassionate ministries that are simply offered through our congregations, we are showing the love of Jesus in practical ways to the poor within our district.

As for Church Planting, this year, the District generously provided funding for 23 people (pastors and representatives) from 15 churches to attend DCPI (Dynamic Church Planting International) Training in Sherman. This event proved to be a catalyst for the mission of our District. There, pastors presented a vision to begin a church planting movement on our District that could plant 135 in the next ten years. Many of these involve churches working together to plant new works on their Zones. For example, the Mississippi Valley Zone presented a goal of planting six new churches in the next ten years, with the first to be launched in the fall of 2014. Several pastors committed to plant new churches from their congregation as well. The District has offered to match resources spent by local churches to start new churches, dollar for dollar.

We have also scheduled two more training opportunities this year: September 17-19 at Salem, and January 7-9 in Decatur. These training sessions will include both Church Planting Essentials for potential church planters and Churches Planting Churches for pastors and leaders from potential mother churches. During our training last year, we learned that the average size of Nazarene congregations that plant new churches is only 53. This belies the idea that many churches are too small to mother a new church. The fact remains that planting new churches is the most effective means of reaching unchurched people. Please, attend one of these trainings, and pray for the Spirit to lead you. Many who did so in Sherman came not expecting, but in listening they saw a new vision for church planting with their congregation.

In one of the most notable presentations, Pastor Kevin Hancock from the Collinsville Good Samaritan Church presented a vision to plant a new Hispanic congregation in the State Park/Fairmont City area. This neighborhood has the highest percentage concentration of Hispanic residents in the St. Louis metro area (72%). Following up on this, the Mission Strategy Team recommended to the District Advisory Board the calling of David Samayoa as Hispanic Mission Coordinator to lead, not only the church planting effort in Collinsville, but also to begin a Church Planting Movement among Hispanic communities on our District. With the Advisory Board's approval, and with an appeal to churches for District wide support, David (with his wife Sonia) will be moving to the Collinsville area in July to begin their work here. Thanks to Dr. Spruce, the Advisory Board, Pastor Waldo Perez, and Pastor Kevin Hancock for their part in making this historic decision for our District.

There are 102 counties in Illinois and 101 of them registered growth in the Latino population between 2000 and 2010. This growth in Hispanic population is not limited to Chicago and its suburbs, but it's here, within the bounds of our District. While counties like Macon (which includes Decatur) saw their overall population decrease, they saw strong Hispanic growth (85%) in the same ten year span. And the State Park Place area near Collinsville saw their Hispanic population increase by 318%, due to a migration of Hispanic families from the city to the area. There is no place better on our District to start a new Hispanic work and God has brought it to pass. Please pray for David and Sonia as they begin their mission here.

Pastors, I encourage you to allow the Holy Spirit of the Christ who sends us to create a vision in you for making disciples in new places, and in new ways. I've never witnessed a time when there were so many options, so many ripe harvest fields, and so many options for ministry. Ask God, the one who created all things, to create in you a vision to reach others for Him. Don't ask what you can afford; ask instead what God wants to do. Ask what breaks His heart, and what He wants to do about it. Once you have His vision, watch as He provides everything you need to accomplish it. Personally, I have witnessed this truth this year: resources always follow vision. In Salem, where I serve, we launched a Parent Affiliated Congregation in a place called The Hope House. It's a little country church building that was graciously donated to Grace Church after we had a vision for recovery ministries. Volunteers and donors worked to restore it. Now Christ uses that humble place to do his ongoing work of restoring broken lives. Pray until you see what He sees, and then pray until He brings it to pass. Then together, we'll rejoice next year as we tell our stories together, glorifying Jesus, for that which only he could accomplish.

I truly believe this coming year will be one of the most exciting years ever on our District. Pray that it will be so.

For His Glory,
Mark S. Copley
Mission Strategy Director

3. District SDMI Chairman

Dr J.K. Warrick, General Superintendent; Dr Jim Spruce, District Superintendent; Pastors, District SDMI board members, local SDMI Chairpersons, teachers, delegates and friends. It is my privilege to give my second report as SDMI chairperson for the wonderful Illinois District Church of the Nazarene.

Again I have had the privilege of serving with great district leadership. Dr Spruce and Reverend Doug Haynes have been very patient in answering questions, giving guidance, and more than forgiving when I fall short of what is needed. Our secretary Judi Roarick has been more than helpful, keeping me straight on due dates and information needed. Bill and Chris Shotts have been there with any question I had and efficiently handling the financial end of our work. Your elected SDMI council as well as the auxiliary members have once again shown patience and have been more than helpful this past year.

The Council met 3 times, a huge thank you goes to Reverend Walter Sheets and the Pana Church of the Nazarene for providing not only a meeting room but coffee to see us through two of these meetings. Both the council and the auxiliary divisions have been busy dealing with changes and simply following through with their ministry duties. One of the first changes we dealt with was when Jerome Williams resigned from his long time position as adult director. Your council came up with several names of qualified people and Reverend Russ Brewer agreed to take the position. Next came the resignation of Doug Krassow as Senior Adult/Prime Time Ministries director. Once again your council came up with very qualified names and Reverend Lila Chapman agreed to fill this position. Continuing with the changes your council decided to add to the adult ministries division with the appointment of a Men's ministry director, actually it is a co-director position filled by Gary Townsend and Rev. Bob Turner. One final change your board made was deciding to incorporate singles ministries into the other adult ministry divisions.

As I said the various ministries have been busy fulfilling their missions:

Children's ministries, under the leadership of Debbie Brewer, revived "District kids day"; a weekend activity for kids to be held in September. Anita Shotts and company had a great kid's camp. I was privileged to be there for one of their evening chapel services, it was great to see the Lord working as we watched boys and girls come to the lord during the alter call. District quiz director, Vonda Hill, along with local coaches and parents took a group of kids to World Quiz in Indianapolis last month. Despite our best efforts we had to cancel lay retreat last year. However, we are on target to have it this year at a new, hopefully, more accessible location and Pastors and wives are invited! Our ladies ministry again had a good attendance at come to the Fire at ONU with some attending live streaming at local churches.

Thanks to your hard work and reporting your statistics, we show an increase in reported Sunday School attendance of 784 over last year. This did not happen by its self. This means local Pastors and Sunday school teachers as well as other committed laymen and women were working and praying.

On a personal note, I was encouraged, blessed and given new insight into the power of prayer at the Prayer encounter conference in Springfield last year with Cory Jones and Maria Durso. This was not just another conference, rather it was "on the job training" in how to pray, both individually and corporately. In January I had the privilege of attending a Prayer encounter weekend at Sherman Church of the Nazarene. The weekend had been covered in prayer; I could sense the presence of the Lord before the start of the first session. Over the weekend I was reminded, again, and saw just how much Love our God has for us, the huge price our Lord paid, not only for our sins but for our spiritual healing and deliverance from sin and the past and our sanctification.

In closing I would encourage you to spend much time in prayer, both personally and corporately. Do what needs to be done in your local Church in the name of Jesus. Laypeople hold your pastors up in prayer, Pastors pray for your people. Please pray for all who are in leadership positions on the district and for our General Church leaders.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim German
District SDMI Chairman

4. District NYI President

Dear Illinois District,

I am writing my 5th report as NYI President for the great Illinois District.

This year marks the 90th anniversary of what we now call Nazarene Youth International. Youth Ministry was a part of our denominational story from the earliest days. When several holiness groups came together to form the church of the Nazarene, Youth Ministry had already become a thriving ministry.

The young women of the church formed an organized “Company E”. Which we believe stood for evangelism. The young men of the church organized into the ministry called “The Brotherhood of Saint Stephen”. These young men and women were committed to living out this – as they described – the “Higher Christian Life”.

Later the youth ministry of the church became known as the “Nazarene Young Peoples Society”. Across the denomination, ministry to the youth was growing rapidly and impacting the local church.

In 1923, the NYPS was formerly organized and held it's first Convention in September in Kansas City, MO. The qualifications to be a delegate: You needed to show up, That was it. All 12,768 members were invited – 72 showed up. The Youth Ministry of the church was officially born. Eventually “NYPS” became “NYI” or Nazarene Youth International”.

There is much to celebrate from these past 90+ years of Youth Ministry. In 2012, NYI's membership grew to 423,924 members across the world. That represents 16,156 local NYI Ministries.

NYI has long been a pioneer in our denomination. The Easter offering that we take to support the World Evangelism Fund and our missionaries around the world was created by the NYI. In an effort to promote and publicize the denominations missionary efforts with its youth ministry, NYI came up with the idea of taking a missionary offering at Easter so that the young people could actively participate in the spreading of the Gospel around the world.

Nazarene Chaplaincy also was created through the NYI.

This summer the NYI will hold it's 23rd General Convention in Indianapolis, Indiana. But we will not be alone, NYI delegates from Kenya, South Africa, the Philippines, Bulgaria, India, Guatemala, Haiti, Trinidad, Argentina and Ecuador will all take part of the proceedings linked via satellite. An idea that was born at the 2005 General NYI Convention.

As an aging organization, we must avoid the temptation to be simply the “managers” of youth ministry. Instead, we must to continue to allow the ministry to be transformational. We do this by refusing to be “Inward focused” and “organizationally driven”. Instead we need to be “Outward focused” and “Missionally driven”. We can never lose sight of the original objectives that our denomination's Youth Ministry pioneers dedicated themselves to.

As your District NYI President, I will endeavor to be true to the movement and mission of the Global NYI. As your NYI Council, we pledge to be true to the pioneering spirit of NYI by asking “why?” and “Is there a better way?”

We will continue to pursue the objectives of the Global NYI –

1. Evangelism
2. Discipleship
3. Leadership Development

With God's help, here is to the next 90 years of Youth Ministry!

Respectfully submitted,
Jay Bush
Illinois District NYI President

6. Administrative Associate

This is my ninth report to you as your Administrative Associate, and I thank the Lord for the privilege of serving 40 years as a minister of which 32 of those have been on the Illinois District.

It has been my privilege to work with Rev. Mark Copley, District Missionary, the District Advisory Board, various other district boards and committees along with local churches as the opportunity has been afforded to me. I continue to be thankful for the opportunity afforded me to work with Dr. Jim Spruce and learn from him.

I try to assist Dr. Spruce in whatever way he sees fit. I currently keep office hours daily from 8AM to 5PM. I maintain the website, publish the Booster, coordinate various district programs and represent the district in the sale of properties. I also represent the DS at district functions and at churches when he is unable to attend, give support to our pastors on the district, and handle several other administrative tasks that are ongoing on the Illinois District. Filling pulpits is also one of my responsibilities.

To many of you who have given me the privilege of speaking in your churches I say, "Thank you."

Nina and I thank you for allowing us to be a part of the administrative team that serves this great district.

I also want to say thanks to Nina for being my bride of almost 40 years, for being a great Mom, and for always being a model of what a close walk with Jesus is all about.

Respectfully submitted,
Douglas E. Haynes
Administrative Associate

Special thanks to Dr. Frank Moore, and Dr. Mark Quanstrom, our ONU professors for teaching workshops. To Decatur First, and Salem Grace for hosting us. And to Laura Mondy and her volunteers who planned and worked hard to organize these important events.

The Mission Strategy Team reemphasizes the following goals:

- Each church developing a written strategic plan for reaching the lost and church growth.
- Each pastor involved in a coaching movement and intentionally connecting with other pastors.
- Each church striving for "Church Health" using the Church Health Survey and the Natural Church Development process.
- Each church embracing a clearly stated target area and plan for involvement in church planting and multiplication.

We believe that the events of this year have moved us closer to these goals, and that the vision for "a new passion, for a new people, and a new Illinois" is coming into view. We continue to pray and seek the fulfillment of our mission, "To develop healthy, multiplying, holiness churches and pastors." Christ is calling us to make Christlike disciples in the nations. As a District, we must follow Him into the new day that he is creating for his Church in Illinois.

7. Christian Cultural Engagement

A. WHEREAS, in times when our culture desperately needs the Church to be a living example of Christ-like holiness and love, we strongly urge:

1. All our sisters and brothers in Christ to remember that we are called to be the Body of Christ in our world being empowered by the Holy Spirit to the glory of God the Father. As a result, we urge our brothers and sisters to remember the importance of corporate Christian worship, the receiving of the Sacraments and the practice of spiritual disciplines within the family and individually, believing that these are primary Means of Grace by which the Holy Spirit shapes us into a holy people.
2. That pastors, evangelists, and leaders live and teach the scriptural doctrines of the new birth and entire sanctification, believing that the Holy Spirit bears witness to both works of grace through the infilling of His Spirit, and that the one biblical evidence of the latter is the cleansing of the heart by faith from original sin manifested by the fruit of the Spirit in Christian service: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal 5:22-24).
3. That the church manual be made available to all in the church who desire it and the Articles of Faith (Manual, Part II, para 1-22, pgs. 28-37) and the Covenant of Christian Character (Manual, Part II, Articles 27-27.3, pgs. 38-40) be read, or printed, and distributed to the church body at least once a year admonishing each Nazarene to diligently pursue a lifestyle that honors God, the church and one another.
4. That new converts be lovingly nourished and instructed in the way of holiness.
5. That all of our people, "in putting off the old to put on the new and holy way of life as well as the mind of Christ" (Eph 4:17-24), take to heart The Covenant of Christian Conduct of our church which gives guidance in areas of Christian Ethics,

Entertainment, Marriage & Divorce, Abortion, Human Sexuality, Christian Stewardship, etc. (Manual, Part III, para 33-41, pgs 46-60).

B. WHEREAS, ethics and values are constantly being questioned and changed by our society, the church must strengthen itself in its commitment and conduct. Therefore, this committee felt it vitally important to not only reaffirm our belief in Scripture and our Wesleyan guidelines, but to also provide useful information in this document to resource both laity and clergy to make the church both a beacon of hope and a model of holiness to our families, community and world. (Matthew 5:10-17; Ephesians 5:1-2,8-14; I Peter 1:13-17).

Believing that ministry in the life of a Christian is based upon who we are in Christ, not merely the activities that we engage in, we encourage our people to see their world through the eyes of Jesus, to seek out opportunities for love and service at home and at work, within their local church as well as in the larger community. We also encourage our people to work with and in public institutions as a means of Christ-like engagement with our culture on the local, State, National, and Global levels.

1. Each local church should strive to provide opportunities for Christ-like service such as:

a) Ministries to the vulnerable, marginalized, and hurting within one's own congregation, believing that Christian love demonstrated toward those within our own fellowship is one way that Christ's love is made evident to the culture around us.

b) Consider initiating special ministries that reach out to the needy in the community.

2. Along with engaging in acts of love and service through the local church, we must encourage our people to bring the same acts of kindness into their workplaces and homes. In understanding that Christ has called not only pastors, but in fact all Christians to be salt and light in the world, we must encourage our people to not look at their homes and workplaces as mundane and trivial, but as places to which they have been called to bring the love and hope of Jesus. We must understand that being a missional church is not something we do only corporately, but something we do individually, everyday as we live our lives as salt and light in this dark and broken world.

3. Our people should show Christian stewardship by becoming involved in civic, community and school functions and cooperating with other churches and civic agencies who share our ministry objectives. Our pastors, youth workers and parents should maintain an awareness of the activities and promotions of organizations within the local school system and unite in an effort to oppose activities that do not comply with New Testament moral standards. Examples of civic organizations to offer aid and service to:

- a) Pregnancy Resource Centers
- b) Homeless Shelters
- c) Habitat for Humanity
- d) Credible Christian Counseling Centers
- e) Food & Clothing Pantries such as Hopeful Hearts Ministries in Decatur, the Good Samaritan Ministries Center in the

- Metro-East and The Master's Hand in Olney and Newton along with multiple food pantries in local churches throughout the district.
- f) Nursing Homes; Senior Adult Organizations
 - g) Appropriate Parent/Teacher Organizations (Resources: Nazarene Compassionate Ministries; Focus on the Family; Salvation Army; Nazarene Ethnic Ministries; Illinois Family Institute, 799 Roosevelt Road, Building 3, Suite 208, Glen Ellyn, IL; Toll free: (800- FAMILY-1); Fax:(630) 790-8390; Email: info@illinoisfamily.org).

4. We should actively monitor our State and Federal Legislature on issues which pertain to, and affect our church and community and express appreciation to individuals/organizations that promote legislature and programs which edify. We encourage the above while being simultaneously mindful that our commitment to Christ our Lord must always be far greater than our commitment to any political party, agenda, or association. Therefore, we urge church leaders to make available the names and addresses of government officials and stress the importance of prayer for all elected officials. We also call our people to thoughtful participation in local, state and national politics, especially pertaining to the biblical ideals of faith, family, and social justice while also wholeheartedly acknowledging that the politics of this world are not the politics of the kingdom of God.

Obama, 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D.C. 20510, 1- 202-456-1414, 1- 202-456-1111).

5. That each local church provides its members with ample opportunities to see beyond our own borders and mature into "global" Christians by staying informed about world events (both natural and political) and the persecution of fellow believers that we might pray for "the increase of His government and peace" on the earth. In addition, we urge the promotion of sacrificial giving for the cause of world evangelism and personally participating in Work and Witness when and where possible.

C. This report is a re-affirmation of our ethical and moral standards, as set forth by the General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene. It is the prayer of this committee that these suggestions and resources will benefit individuals and churches committed to fulfilling the Great Commission. For only through personal involvement can we go into the "fields white unto harvest" (John 4:37).

This report is a re-affirmation of our ethical and moral standards, as set forth by LET US GO!

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS HIGGINS, Secretary

8. Church Growth

Church Growth

We, your Committee on Church Growth, make the following recommendations to the district assembly for consideration:

Commission

We recommend that every church emphasize the Great Commission (Matthew 28:16-20) in every facet of their ministry. Scripture is very clear that our primary motivation in church growth is seeing souls saved and disciplined in Christ Jesus.

Prayer

Prayer is the foundation for all church growth. Without prayer, little of lasting value will be accomplished. We also recommend that the church provide opportunities for concentrated prayer and fasting during the church year. We recommend that each local church do their best to support the District sponsored Prayer Summits and Encounters.

Mission/Vision/Purpose

We encourage every church to develop a mission statement, a vision statement, and a clear statement of purpose. We recommend that these three key elements be presented to the local congregation on a regular basis to ensure continued focus on God's plan, mission and vision for the local church.

Responsibility List

That every church maintain an accurate and detailed responsibility list. We also encourage each congregation to actively and regularly contact, nurture, and disciple those that they have claimed responsibility for.

Calling

That absentees be contacted through a regular, systematic approach. This is not solely the responsibility of the pastor, but should be a shared ministry within the church among the laity.

Discipleship

Emphasis should be given not only to evangelism, but also the discipleship. The new Christian should be encouraged to seek the experience of entire sanctification which leads to continued spiritual growth, productive service, inspirational witness in the Christian life

Lay Ministry

We encourage each local church to seek creative ways to provide for and promote Christian service and ministry opportunities within the church and community.

Education

That pastors and laymen take full advantage of educational and CEU opportunities, including seminars, workshops, videos, books, and especially the quality CLT programs that our denomination offers.

Evangelism

That each local congregation seek to evangelize their community with the vision of seeing souls saved and lives changed by the grace and glory of God. That innovative and creative methods of outreach and evangelism be explored and implemented.

New Church Starts

We believe every church on the Illinois District can and should be prayerfully involved in creating or supporting new church starts. That each pastor promote and attend the Church Planting Essentials and Churches Planting Churches DCPI training. That prayer, funding, and personal involvement in new church plants be part of the local church mission statement and vision.

Personal Evangelism

It is the privilege and duty of every Christian to share their faith with others. We encourage all churches to provide specialized training for various types of personal evangelism as well as develop a mentoring support plan for the discipleship of new converts.

Revivals

We encourage our churches to plan for and facilitate annual revival campaigns. We strongly urge the use of full-time evangelists in the Church of the Nazarene.

Servant Evangelism

That methods of servant evangelism be employed in churches of all sizes and in all areas. That the local church look for creative and helpful ways to be a blessing to the community it ministers to.

Finances

Set aside a portion of the annual church budget for purposes of outreach and evangelism. The Bible says, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Evangelism Committee

We encourage each church to review and implement the guidelines for a local Evangelism and Church Membership Committee as stated in the 2009-2013 Manual, page 71, and section 110-110.8.

Global Church Growth Award

It should be the goal of every church to introduce each new convert into the membership of the Church of the Nazarene.

The purpose of the General Superintendents' Growth Award (GSGA) is to give prominence to those practices that are central to the local and worldwide advancement of the church; specifically, new Nazarenes, significant involvement in sponsoring a new church, and 100% participation in fund allocations.

- Churches that win people to Christ are healthy.
 - Starting new churches is the most effective means of evangelism known to the church.
 - Fund allocations are essential to the cooperative ministries of the Church of the Nazarene.
- I. New Nazarenes requirements are based on 10% of attendance for the current year.
 - II. The meaning of "significant involvement in sponsoring a new church" is very specific and is spelled out in the Sponsorship Criteria Worksheet. This worksheet is available online.
 - III. Full participation in fund allocations includes district assignment, educational support, pensions (applicable to US only), and World Evangelism Fund.
 - The requirements for receiving this award are intentionally high—it is

- special recognition by the Board of General Superintendents.
- It is not based on attendance or membership.
 - This award is not intended to replace all awards.

This award is given in recognition of outstanding accomplishment in essential practices of the expansion of the kingdom of God through the Church of the Nazarene. The presentation of this award is intended to say "Thank You" to the receiving pastor and church, and to elevate in the consciousness of our people the compelling importance of winning people to Christ, starting new churches, and supporting the organizational structures that make possible evangelism around the world.

Respectfully submitted,

KEVIN PITTMAN, Secretary

GARY WILLIAMSON, Chairman

9. Ministerial Staff Support

We, your Committee on Ministerial Staff Support, submit the following in order to care for the welfare of our spiritual leaders and encourage their commitment to our spiritual guidance.

The district office and the Pastoral Support Committee want to assist pastors and church boards in understanding their roles in providing adequate compensation for its pastors and staffs. Support of the pastor by the church is an expression of the belief in the call of God on the life of the pastor rather than a job where monies are paid for services rendered. Adequate compensation enables a pastor to fulfill his or her calling.

Pastoral support extends beyond the compensation and benefits for the pastor and staff and includes those expenses incurred by pastoral staff which is necessary to conduct the business of the church. Each church pays a sum to a pastor's ministry, which is divided into several categories: compensation, benefits and expenses. The sum of these categories is considered the cost of ministry to the local church, not all of which is to be considered the income of the pastor.

The district Pastoral Support Committee has developed guidelines for local pastoral support committees to evaluate their commitment to the ministry of the pastor. Anyone wanting further assistance in assessing or planning adequate compensation may contact the district office. In addition to consideration for the local pastors, churches should also establish a remuneration policy for pulpit supply, including travel expenses.

Senior Pastor

The senior pastor is the leader of the church and a leader in the local community.

Bi-vocational Pastor

A bi-vocational pastor supplements income by means other than church compensation. Churches should view the circumstances that cause the pastor to supplement income as a temporary situation to be resolved as soon as possible. The goal is to remove as many worldly concerns from the pastor as possible, so that the pastor may attend more intently on his or her life's calling. Recognizing that small and young churches may have difficulty in providing adequately for their pastor and family, we urge such churches to use what they are able to provide to the best advantage of their pastor and to strive toward the goal of full support.

Associate Pastor and Staff

An associate pastor is defined as a partner in ministry, on staff, whether receiving compensation or not. The church is to work toward a similar benefit package for the full-time associate as for the senior pastor (guideline to the church: an amount equal to 70 to 80 percent of the senior pastor's compensation package). Associate pastor and staff salaries should be negotiated in accordance with the recommendations of the senior pastor.

Retired Pastor

A retired pastor is a minister with retirement status. We recommend that retired pastors be employed for pulpit supply as frequently as possible. Retired pastors usually live on meager retirement benefits and may welcome the opportunity to provide for pulpit supply. Retired pastors are a source of experience and expertise that is available to the local church.

Evangelist

Often, the evangelist's only source of income is from meetings held at various local churches. We recommend that a full-time evangelist's minimum remuneration for such a meeting be an amount equal to twice the local senior pastor's weekly cash salary for each full Sunday in the special meeting (as recommended by the Evangelism Ministries of the Division of Local Church Growth). The local senior pastor's weekly cash salary and prorated insurance and Social Security benefits should all be included in the compensation. Additional compensation for housing and travel-related expenses should be paid in a separate check, allowing for maximum tax benefit for the evangelist.

I. For the Pastor

A. Concerning Salary:

1. That for all full-time pastors, every church provides a minimum of $450 per week salary. By definition, salary should not be deemed to include reimbursements and cost of ministry expenses listed below in Section B, Paragraph 1. The Advisory Board is to make the distinction between full-time and bi-vocational pastors. That churches which are legitimately unable to provide for such remuneration recognize that their pastor is bi-vocational and, therefore, able and obligated to supplement his or her income. We recommend that the district superintendent or designated personnel monitor the suggested minimum weekly salary on the basis of the materials provided by the general church's worksheet and, when necessary, give strong counsel to church boards to provide the above-stated minimum salary and benefits.
2. That the church place, as an employee benefit, an amount equal to 10 percent of the ministerial staff's monthly salary in a tax-sheltered annuity each month for his/her retirement. This is the third leg of the retirement tier recommended by the Pensions and Benefits office of the general Church of the Nazarene.
3. That the church review the ministerial staff salary at least annually and that increases reflect at least cost-of-living increases. That a letter be sent once a year from the district superintendent to the local church board secretary reminding the board of its responsibility in this area, and that a written summation of the board's action shall be returned to the district superintendent within 30 days of the local board meeting.
4. That any significant increase in the annual amount raised for all purposes by the church during a pastor's tenure be taken into consideration at the time salary and benefits are reviewed.

B. Concerning Reimbursements:

1. That the church pays reimbursements for all church-related expenses, and that among these are standard mileage reimbursement at the recommended IRS rate for personally-owned automobiles. To avoid additional financial burden on the pastor and staff during these days of rapidly increasing gasoline prices, the church board is strongly encouraged to monitor and comply with any increases the IRS may possibly make on its recommended mileage rate during the calendar year. Entertainment expenses, office supplies, continuing education expenses (books, tuition, conferences, etc.), gifts and all other reimbursable expenses deemed appropriate by the IRS should also be included.

2. Church-related expenses of pastoral staff should be qualified on the basis of material from General Headquarters, as well as the Internal Revenue Service. Every church should provide adequately to prevent financial strain to the parsonage family, and that every church provides 100 percent Social Security and full family hospitalization. That churches be allowed to maintain their present insurance program, and if churches propose a change, the change should be approved by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.
3. That the church provides the ministerial staff expense to all church-related functions, including the district and general assemblies. Lodging, meals and transportation shall be a part of this expense.
4. That the churches encourage and financially support its ministerial staff to continuing education through school, seminars and conferences.
5. That each local church board provides funds for the purpose of sending its ministerial staff to the general assembly.

C. Concerning Housing:

1. That the church provides housing and utilities and/or adequate housing allowance.
2. That the church equips the parsonage with a stove, refrigerator, air conditioning, washer, dryer, draperies, curtains and carpeting.
3. That a minister could request the church board to adjust his/her compensation for any year in which it is anticipated that the minister will purchase major appliances and/or furniture.
4. That the fair-rental value and the designated additional parsonage allowance should be entered into church board records at the beginning of each calendar year. When a housing allowance is established in lieu of a parsonage, a review of the allowance should be made annually regarding payment, taxes, utilities and repairs.
5. That the Board of Trustees of the local church inspect the parsonage once each year in order to continue to provide for quality living conditions. No parsonage family should be expected to live in substandard housing. This inspection should be scheduled with the pastor and spouse and be done in their presence. Any necessary changes seen at this inspection should be completed as soon as possible.
6. That the local church board makes all necessary arrangements for the ministerial staff's moving expenses.

D. Concerning the Ministerial Staff's General Emotional and Spiritual Welfare:

1. That the church continually lifts the parsonage families in prayer.
2. That the church remembers the ministerial staff's family with suitable gifts at appropriate times during the year and consider a gift of no less than one week's salary at Christmas.

3. That the church provide for vacation and time off according to the following scale (this schedule refers to total years in ministry):
 - a. One year in the ministry: two weeks vacation
 - b. Two to ten years in the ministry: three weeks vacation
 - c. Ten to twenty years in the ministry: four weeks vacation
 - d. Twenty or more years in the ministry: five weeks vacation
(District Assembly, Family Camp, ministerial retreats and seminars, and working in Teen or Children's Camps are not to be considered as part of this vacation time allowance.)
4. In order to benefit the church and the health of the pastor, the church should encourage the pastoral staff to take a minimum of one day per week for family time.
5. That the church allow the senior pastor the privilege of holding a full week revival or speaking engagement of one or more days, not to exceed seven days per year, with the church to be responsible for pulpit supply without loss of salary to the pastor.
6. That the local church offer the pastor/staff two mental health days each month to be taken at the pastor's discretion, to be used at a time when workload or individual stress is overwhelming.
7. That the local church make available to its pastor a one month sabbatical at the end of each five years of uninterrupted ministry to that same church.

II. For All Full-time Evangelists (Song and Otherwise)

A. Concerning Salary:

1. That evangelists be paid at least an amount equal to twice the pastor's salary or a minimum of $500 for each Sunday of the meeting.
2. That, in addition, Social Security on the amount of salary be summarily paid.
3. That evangelists be notified in writing at the time the meeting is scheduled of the minimum remuneration they can expect to receive from the local church.
4. That local churches avoid canceling previously scheduled revivals.
5. That a local church canceling a revival without notifying the evangelist at least 30 days in advance be obligated to pay the minimum remuneration in full, unless the evangelist is able to reschedule the same date.

B. Concerning Reimbursements and Housing

1. That churches provide for all travel expenses, lodging and food during the meeting.
2. That local churches having full-time evangelists as members pay one-half the cost of the district hospitalization insurance.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Illinois District Church of the Nazarene

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis of the Administration, Home Mission, Camp Ground, District Reserve, Medical, Nazarene Missions International, Church New Start, Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International and Nazarene Youth International funds of the Illinois District Church of the Nazarene as of April 30, 2013, and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses and cash flows – modified cash basis for the fiscal year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 1; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As explained in Note 1 to the financial statements, the modified cash basis of accounting requires fixed assets be stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Management has informed us that the District has stated its properties at estimated costs and appraised values versus historical costs as required by the modified cash basis of accounting. In addition, no depreciation expense has been recorded in the financial statements. The effect of this departure on the financial statements has not been determined.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above (except for the effects of valuing fixed assets at estimated costs and appraised values described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph) present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and net assets of the Administration, Home Mission, Camp Ground, District Reserve, Medical, Nazarene Missions International, Church New Start, Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International and Nazarene Youth International funds of the Illinois District Church of the Nazarene as of April 30, 2013, and its support, revenue and expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Basis of Accounting

As explained in Note 1, these financial statements were prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

Other Matters

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses and cash flows – modified cash basis. The accompanying supplementary information contained on pages 11 through 27 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain other procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are presented using a modified cash basis of accounting. This basis of accounting recognizes assets, liabilities, net assets, revenues, and expenses when they result from cash transactions. This basis is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As a result of the use of this modified cash basis of accounting, certain assets and their related revenues (such as accounts receivable) and certain liabilities and their related expenses (such as accounts payable) are not recorded in these financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The District considers all highly liquid investment instruments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments in mutual funds with readily determinable fair values are reported at their fair values in the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis. The District carries investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values in the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying Statement of Support, Revenues and Expenses – Modified Cash Basis.

Property and Equipment

The District has recorded its property and equipment at appraised and estimated values, which is not in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting. Depreciation has not been computed on fixed assets.

Income Taxes

The District is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the District has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the code.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Loans Receivable and Payable and Transfers between Program Accounts

Loans between programs have a zero net effect on the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis and have been eliminated. In addition, transfers between programs have a zero net effect on the Statement of Support, Revenue and Expenses – Modified Cash Basis and have been eliminated.

NOTE 2 – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The District maintains multiple accounts at various financial institutions. Accounts at these institutions are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). As of April 30, 2013, total cash at one institution exceeded FDIC limits in the amount of $3,664.37.
